BURGESS CAPTURES SENIOR NOR CAL OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP & NOR CAL OPEN DAY 2 RESULTS

September 15, 2009

By Staff Writer

Davis, Calif. – The Northern California Section of the Professional Golfers Association of America is pleased to report that PGA Professional Ric Burgess of Colusa Country Club (Colusa, Calif.) captured the Senior Northern California Open Championship contested at El Macero Country Club and Wildhorse Golf Course in Davis, Calif. Burgess' solid performance throughout the championship ended with a two-day score of 7-under-par-137. John Enright (a) of Montara, Calif. earned the Senior Northern California Amateur title. PGA Life Member Raul Quezada of Copper River Country Club in Fresno, Calif. captured the Super Senior Division title via scorecard playoff over PGA Life Member Gary Plato of San Jose, Calif.

This 36-hole stroke play championship was made possible through the support of Golf Insurance Services and The George Archer Foundation. For more information about the Northern California PGA and for complete coverage of this championship, please visit www.ncpga.com
